Everyone has a story to tell...

WHAT ABOUT YOU?

It's a simple question that goes a long way. The uniqueness of each answer is what makes our school's community different from any other.

Throughout this book, YOU see the variation from person to person as we highlight each story.

What made this year different from the last?

How did YOU make this year special?

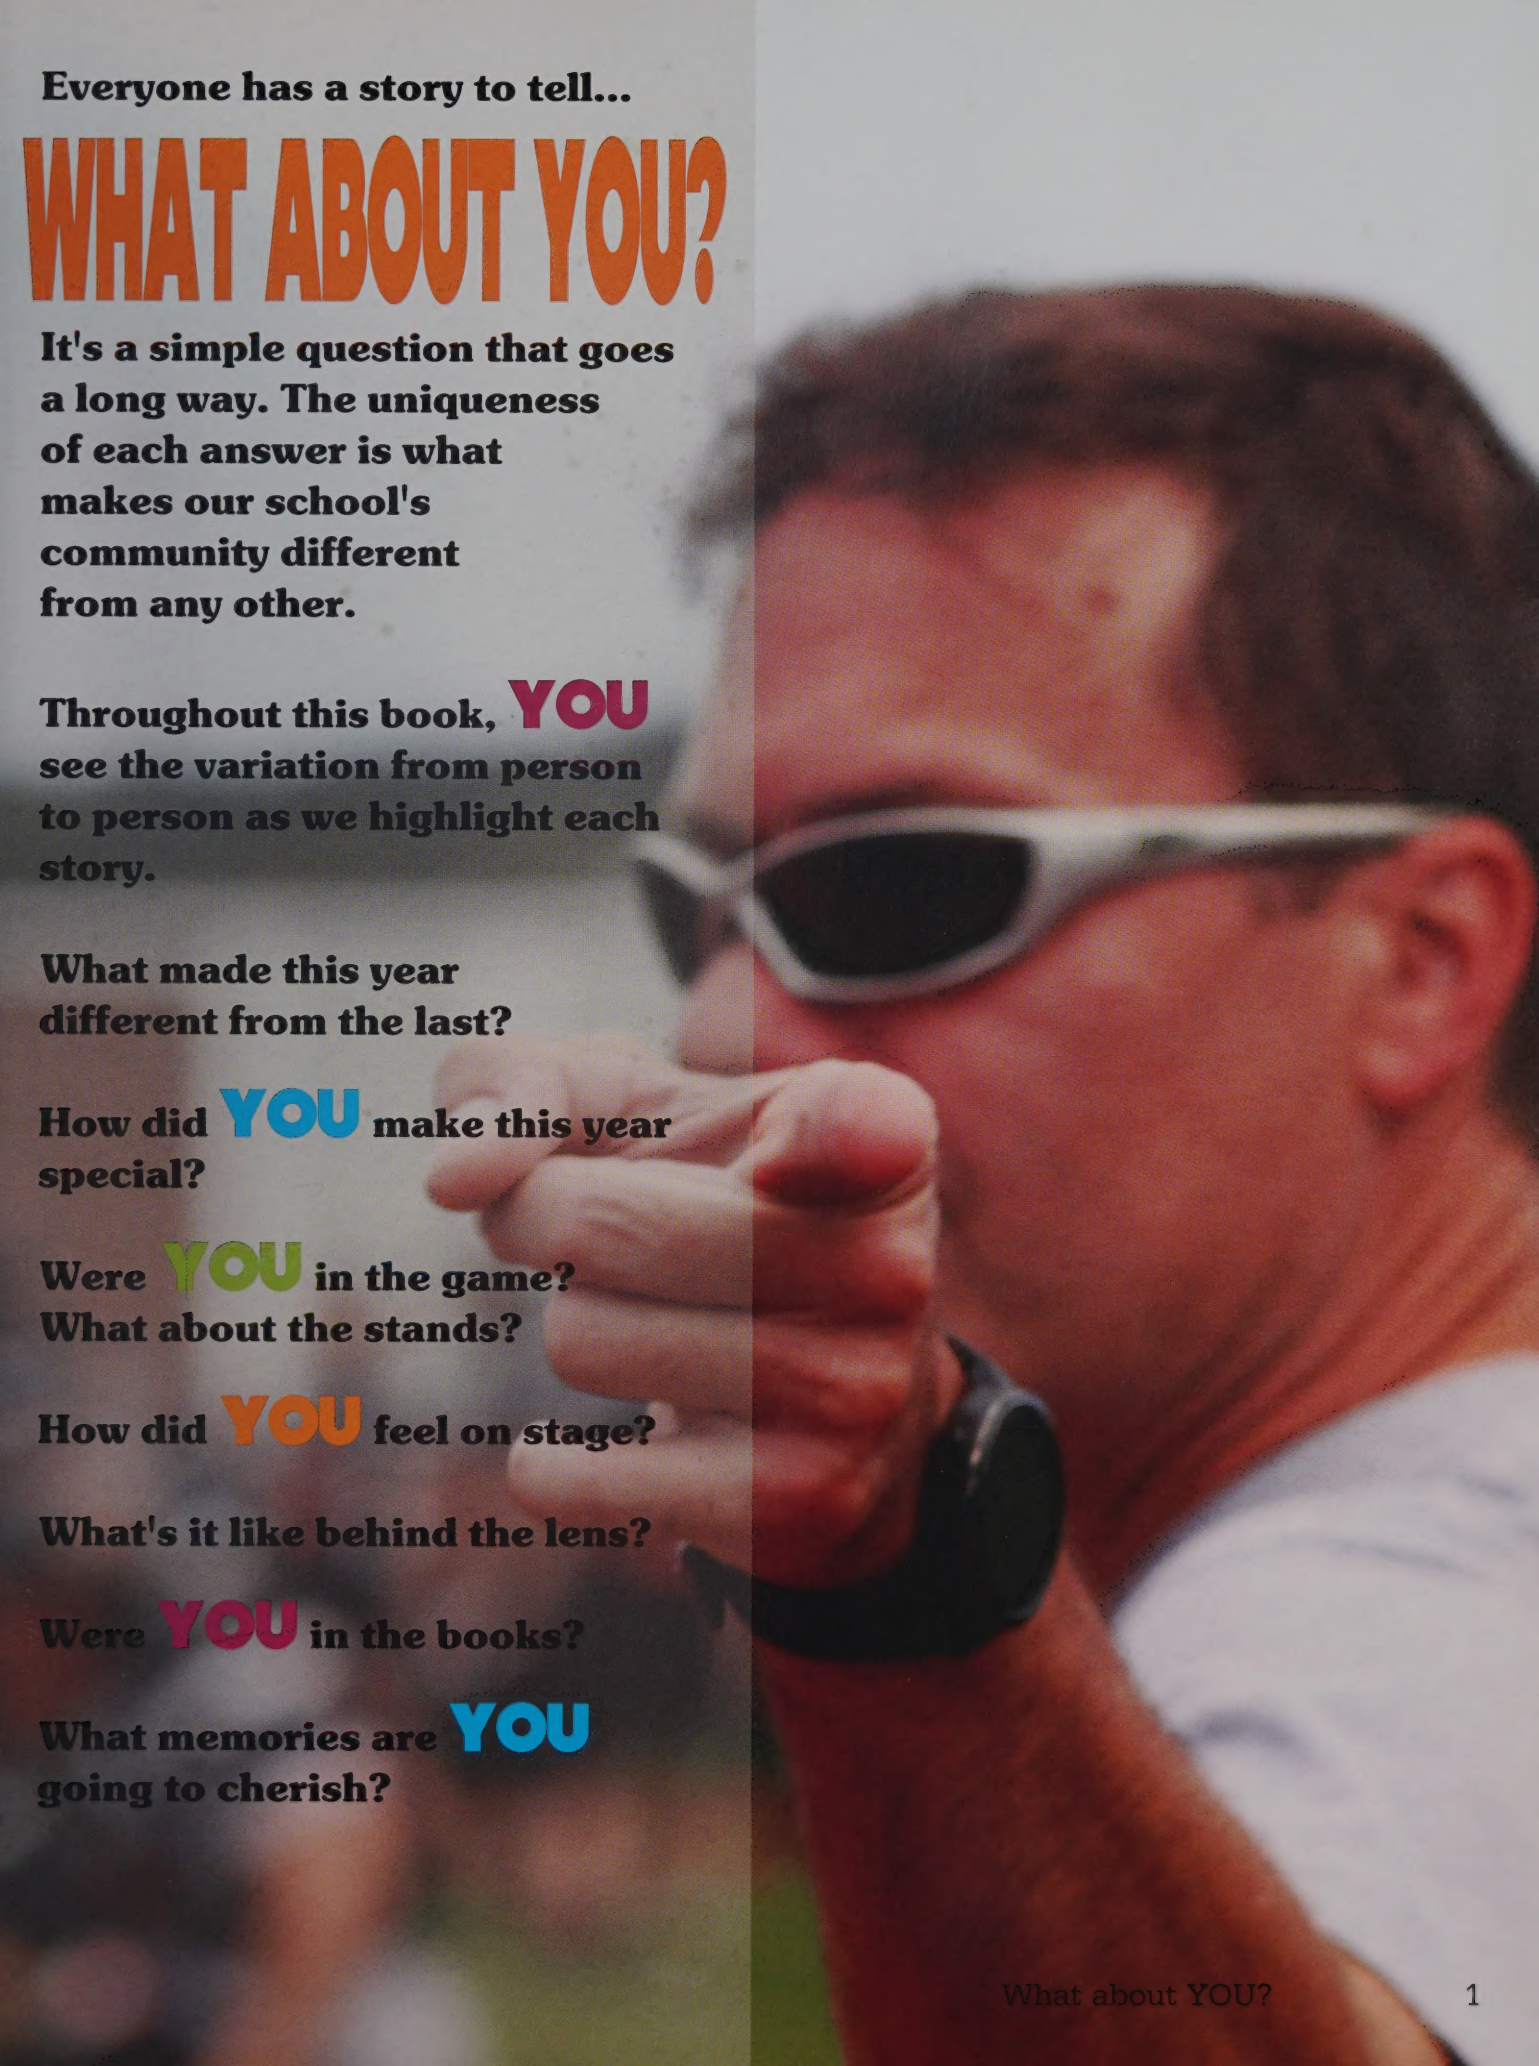
Were YOU in the game? What about the stands?

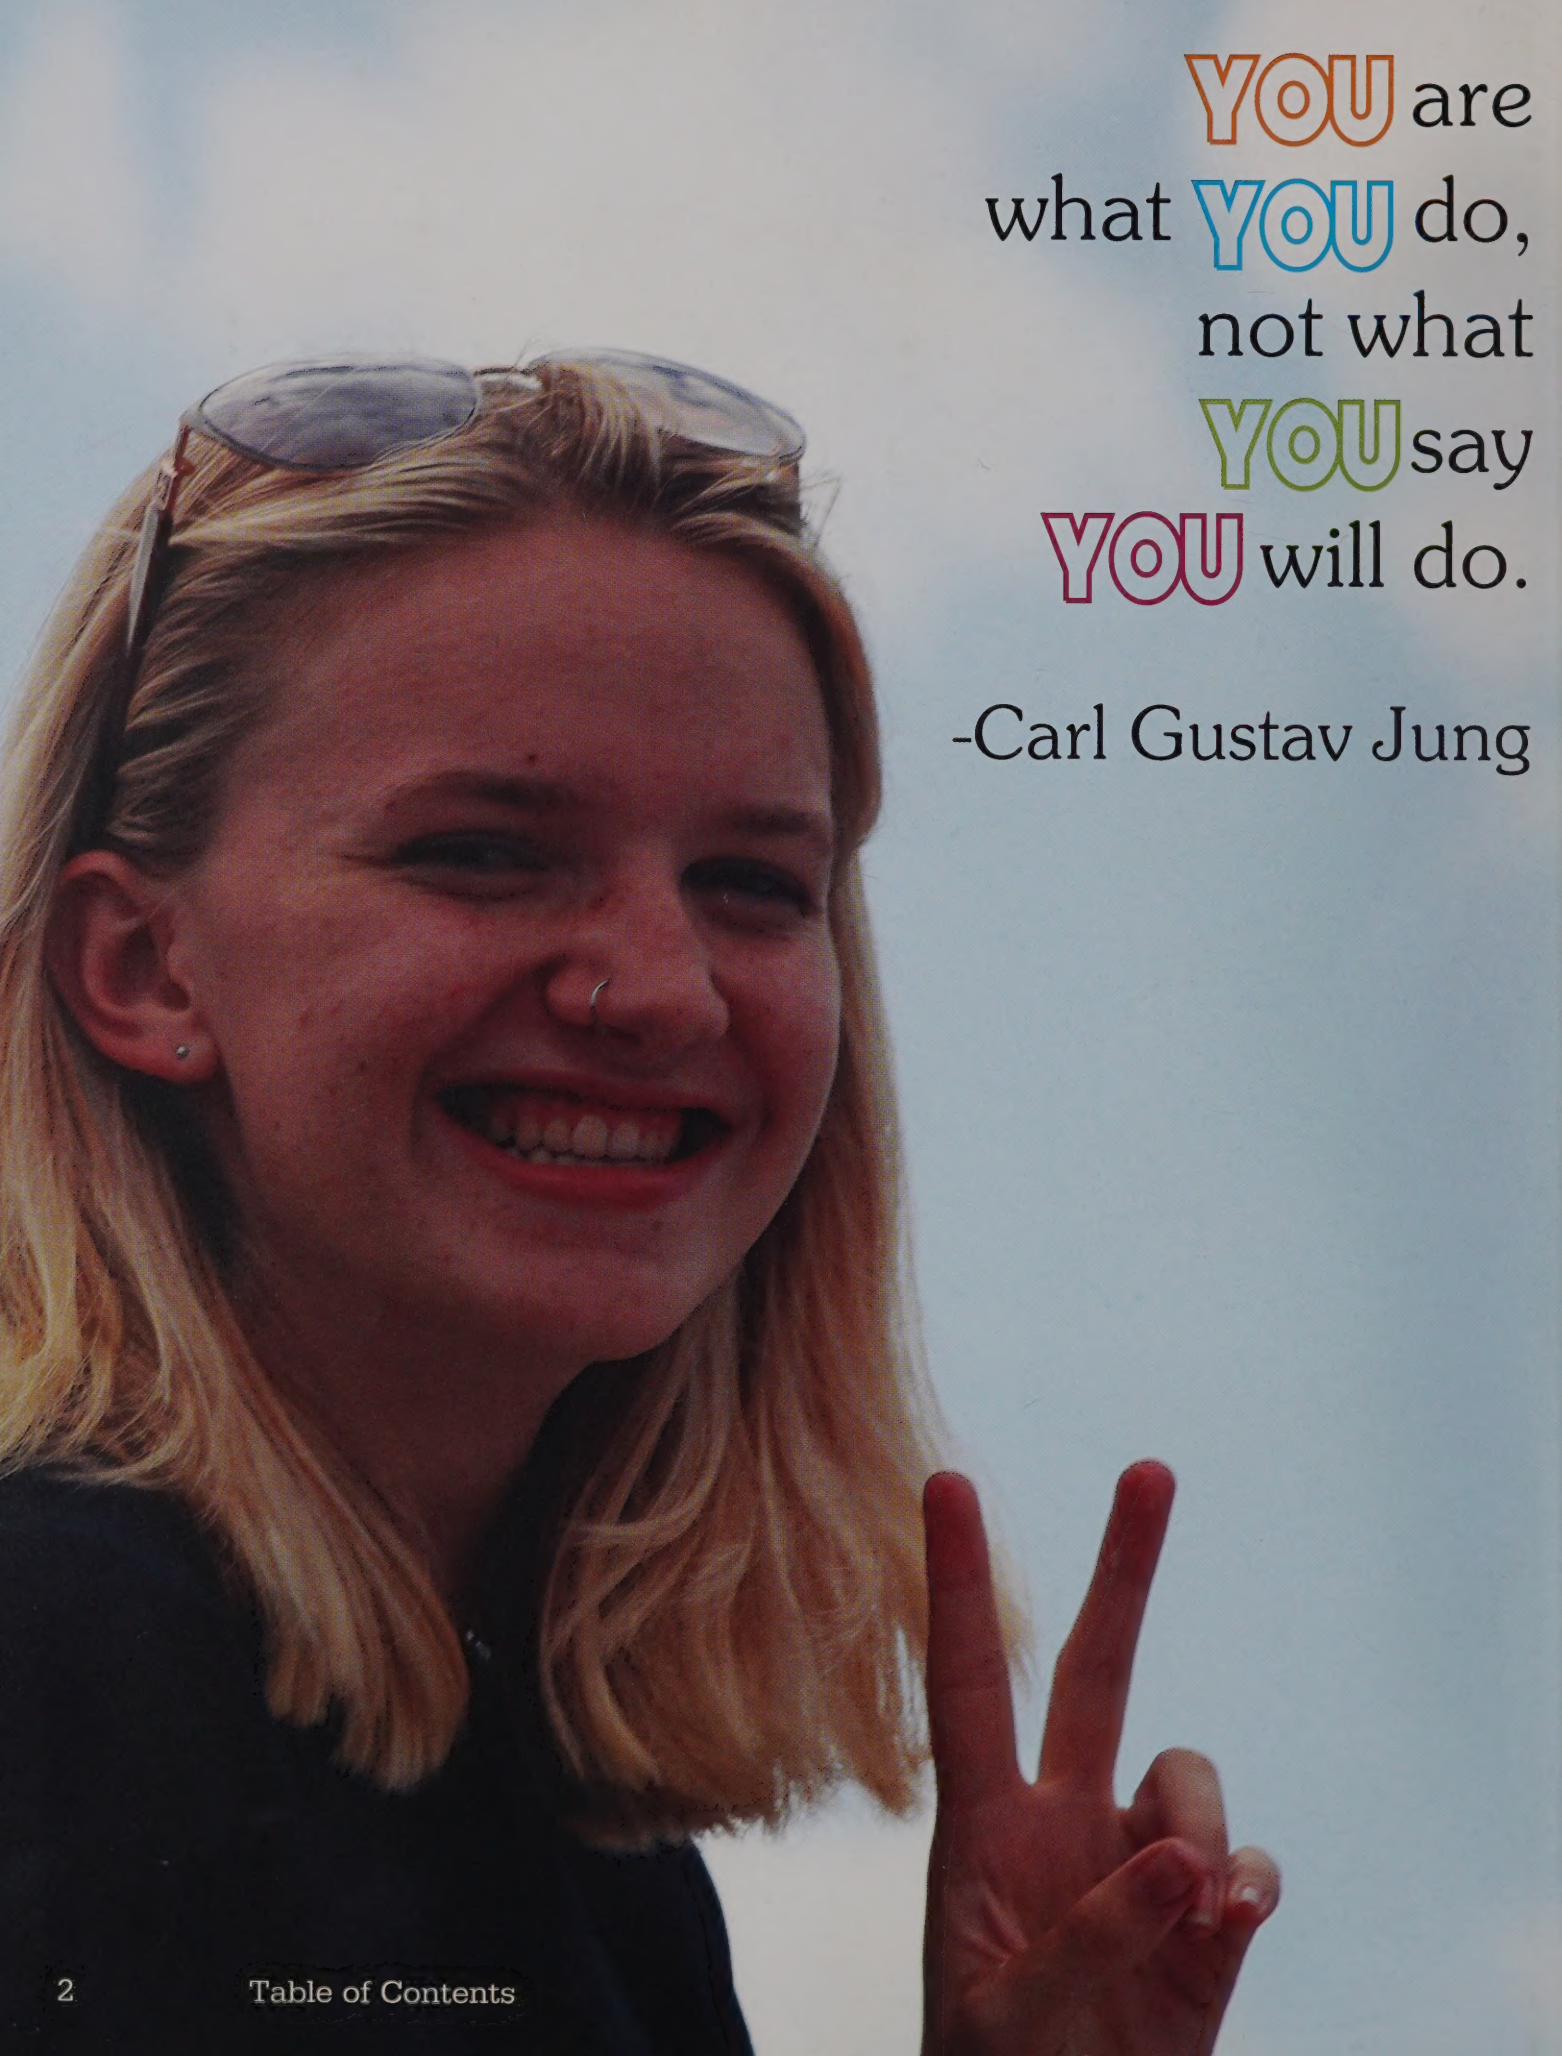
How did YOU feel on stage?

What's it like behind the lens?

Were YOU in the books?

What memories are YOU going to cherish?





YOU are
what YOU do, not what
YOU say
YOU will do.

In Memory of Olivia Cyr

August 26, 2002 - September 10, 2021

I went into teaching hoping to make a difference in the lives of my students. Little did I know how much of a difference a student would have in mine.

Olivia reminded me to let go of the things I have no control over. She reminded me that it's okay to stay up all night to finish a good book. She reminded me of the power of one positive word or one random act of kindness. She reminded me that I have the courage to do hard things, and that I have the power to say "no" to things that don't bring me joy.

She also reminded me that we are not here forever.

Even though she was only here for 19 years, she had such a huge impact on countless lives. I'll never be able to express in words how much she changed me as a person, a teacher, and a friend.

To quote Albus Dumbledore,

"To the well-organized mind, death is but the next great adventure."

Liv, I hope you are enjoying your next adventure.

-Ms. Nugent

SUMMER'S OUT...

and we stood at the doors of OHS. As we fell into the new school year, we found ourselves surrounded by books, friends, sports, and new opportunities. Fall is a new beginning, a time to reinvent ourselves, and just as the leaves change with every passing season, so did we. So...

how have YOU changed?

- Alexander Hamilton

"I like it because I get to see my friends and actually be social/interact with people."

"Considering we only had 6 seniors, we had a fantastic and fun season. To make the playoffs for the first time since 2021 was a great experience, and we're looking forward to doing it again. We could not have done it without the experience and leadership that our senior class had to offer."

- Coach Clarkson

FALL SPORTS

Cheer

"Walking into our season with our expectations high, this team not only met but exceeded them. To win the school's first ever SWCL title, then proceed to perform at states was above what we set out to accomplish. With just two seniors, we harbored an abundance of determination and talent. Every member of this squad was tested to their mental and physical capacity only to continue to show up and give their all. This will be a season to remember."

- Coach Small

Girl's Soccer

"The 2021 girl's soccer season was filled with ups and downs. However, our program peaked when it mattered most, the end of the season. They persevered through many challenges, which resulted in the program's first ever home state tournament game on Masley Field. And they advanced in dominating fashion."

- Coach Harvey

POST-SEASON

Boy's Soccer

"Qualifying for the state tournament was a dream come true! I could not have asked for a better group of senior leaders - they stayed loyal and committed through some tough seasons and, finally, achieved what they deserved for all the hard work they put in over the years. The younger players are loaded with potential and I am beyond proud of these boys!"

are not something we expected to be saying so soon. The past four years have been a roller coaster of emotions, from academics to extracurriculars to our own personal lives. For some, this year is a start and for some the end of an era, the last time they'll ever walk the halls of OHS. As this year comes to an end, seniors gear up to start the next chapter of their lives. So...

" While attending Oxford High School we have learned not only how to be good students, but have been taught how to be kind, creative, dedicated, and independent people. Throughout the last five years I believe we have learned about ourselves and the world around us more than we ever expected to have. I hope we can all keep learning to find more of ourselves even after graduating. Everyone always tells the seniors that after high school it's "only the beginning," so take the time to really start it off right and keep living happily! It has been an honor to be your Class President for these past three years. I wouldn't have wanted it to be any other way. "

MS. LOOBY

Don't be afraid to be different, and don't be afraid to show passion for what you do.

MS. DILIDDO

Always remember that it's about the journey–not the destination.

MS. RUTKIEWITZ

Seek a career/life that truly is meaningful to you as a human...you're guaranteed to be happier, and spread that to others!
Remember to treat yourself with patience and understanding...struggle is something everyone shares. You're worth it!

Sam –

Put on your shades because your future is looking bright! Dad and I are so proud of you. It is not only your achievements that make us proud but also your acts of kindness when no one is looking. How you treat people and how you will help others without seeking recognition or praise, make us the proudest. Here are some of our pearls of wisdom that we know you already heard from us, but we want to remind you - whenever you can travel do it, you might not get another chance; continue to make new friends, but don't forget your old one; enjoy life but not too much, no one looks good with their head in a toilet; don't spend all your free time playing video games, continue to spend time in nature; if a class looks interesting, take it, always continue learning; alcohol will play a part in your life, don't allow it to become your life; say "yes" to many opportunities but it's ok to say "No"; accumulate memories, not stuff; surprises in life aren't always bad; don't be afraid to change your mind; you don't always have to prove your right to be right; if someone gives you their heart be careful with it and don't allow someone to be reckless with yours; and it is okay to ask for help when you need it. Life will sometimes be challenging, tough, confusing, and stressful, but it is a pretty awesome ride. You will make mistakes and have regrets at times, but that is okay – you will learn from each of them. Enjoy every moment of your life – the good and the bad to become the absolute best version of yourself! As Ralph Waldo Emerson said, "The only person you are destined to become is the person you decide to be." Lastly, most importantly do not forget to call your mother.

Congratulations and we love you!

~ Mom, Dad & Max

Congratulations Ben!

I didn't give you the gift of life, LIFE gave me the gift of you! CONGRATULATIONS my baby girl, it's time to spread those wings as the best is yet to come!
